

Sophisticated New-Style Night Out

Entertainment group brings a captivating night on the town under one roof

By Helen Blue

Levi Strauss and Tiffany rarely step out together, but if local entrepreneurs have their way, that Jeans and Jewel combination will be the mainstay at a, sophisticated new style “night on the town,” Friday September 3, 2010, Labor Day weekend.

A unique entertainment concept, the event, Jeans and Jewels...GC2010, produced by Guilted Cage Entertainment Group, takes all the elements of a sophisticated night on the town- dinner, a concert, dancing and puts them under one roof. No wrangling for tickets for a hot act, no more making reservations at a crowded restaurant, no more waiting in line at the newest club.... and no more searching for a parking space.

You can have it all at Jeans and Jewels...GC2010 to be held at The Drexel Brook Club, 4700 Drexel Brook Road, Drexel Hill, Friday, Sept 3, 8pm-1am. The event features the mesmerizing electric violinist Ken Ford, sumptuous dinner; open bar; cigar and cognac bar; DJ Corey, DST Hatch with R&B and top 40; salsa showcase, body painting by Lawren Alice from Gallery ML and a walk down the red carpet with photo shoot – “You are the STAR!”

The Ken Ford Concert begins at 9pm. Visit www.guiltedcage.com for ticket sales, directions and complete line up of events or call 215 294 8875.

The one-stop night out is the brainchild of Beverly Chandran and Mary Arthur, two seasoned entrepreneurs, who realized that many of their professional friends wanted to enjoy a night out but had little time to plan the perfect date night, or girls night out together. Plus, Chandran noted, “the cost of going out can get to be quite expensive when you add up an $85 concert ticket, $60 for dinner, club admission, and, of course, parking. Who has the time, money or patience to run from venue-to-venue after working such long hours?

“I thought, well why not bring all of this together in a luxurious setting for one price, says Mary, Beverly’s business partner. ”Our night includes an astounding musical talent, delicious food, dancing, body painting, and other surprises for $125.00, of which a portion of the ticket sales will be donated to a nonprofit. A great bargain when you consider all the above, the good vibes, and networking opportunities! You don’t want to miss this fabulous event. It will be a captivating experience! ”

As U tube videos attest Ken Ford is an exciting whirlwind of energy and extraordinary skill. The Atlanta-based talent brings an audience to its feet with his sophisticated interpretation of jazz, R&B and classical music. Classically trained, Ford got his start in some of Atlanta’s hottest jazz clubs where he developed the unique style that has brought him to the attention of producers and music aficionados nationwide. www.KenFord.net

The Jeans and Jewels night out also has a purpose. Part of the proceeds benefit The Campaign for Working Families (CWF), a non-profit organization committed to solving urban problems in the Philadelphia region. CWF completed 11,653 tax returns of which 591 were completed for small business owners. CWF helped collect over $22 million in refunds this year for people who live in the Philadelphia area. Find out more about The Campaign for Working Families by visiting www.phillyfreetaxes.org

For additional information about the Guilted Cage Entertainment Group or to purchase tickets contact Beverly Chandran at 215-294-8875 or Mary Arthur at 215-569-0764.